

General Regulatory Agency Lists Information

United States Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA), Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Information System List-8 (CERCLIS), including the National Priority List (NPL): The CERCLIS List notes sites that are subject to investigation for discharging hazardous materials into the environment. The NPL, also known as the Superfund List, is an EPA listing of the nation's worst uncontrolled or abandoned hazardous waste sites. The CERCLIS List was reviewed to determine if the subject site or sites within a half mile radius of the subject site are listed. The NPL was reviewed to determine if the subject site or sites within a mile radius of the subject site are listed.

U.S. EPA, Federal Superfund Liens List and the U.S. EPA California Liens List: The Liens Lists list properties for which liens have been filed pursuant to CERCLA. The Liens Lists were reviewed to determine if the subject site or sites within a mile radius of the subject site are listed.

California Environmental Protection Agency (Cal-EPA), Active Annual Workplan (AWP) List, Backlog Sites List, and the Active Voluntary Clean-up Program List: These lists locate and describe contaminated sites within California which are targeted for expenditure of state funds, either for total cleanup costs or for state oversight. The AWP, Backlog Sites List, and the Active Voluntary Clean-up Program List were reviewed to determine if the subject site or sites within a mile radius of the subject site are listed.

Cal-EPA, Recorded Deed Restriction List (RDR): Environmental Science and Support Unit of the Cal-EPA, DTSC has compiled a list of properties for which land use restrictions have been recorded. The RDR was reviewed to determine if the subject site or sites within a mile radius of the subject site are listed.

The Regional Water Quality Control Board (RWQCB), Leaking Underground Storage Tank (LUST) Listing: The LUST Listing (identified by ERIIS as LRST) identifies leaking underground storage tank sites in the RWQCB's jurisdictional area. The LUST Listing was reviewed to determine if the subject site or sites within a half mile radius of the subject site are listed.
